Concert description:

"Music gathers people." The belief that music can break down borders is deeply held and shared by the members of the Lodom Ensemble. From Persian music to Balkan folklore to fresh takes on great classics, this concert transcends borders through an implicit musical multiculturalism. This unconventional group, made up of artists from across the country, brings together piano, cello, accordion, and percussion to put a new spin on arrangements and original compositions. Fresh and surprising!

Length of the performance: 90 minutes (two 45-minute parts)
